A consignment of library books, stationery items and bicycles was received just a few weeks after the Harvest Appeal cash benefits were distributed. The package had a lot of books for both primary and secondary level. The aid was spread across the whole Mudzi west constituency which has twenty-one primary and nine secondary schools, Bicycles were distributed among the traditional leadership to facilitate mobility of chiefs and headmen's messengers in the execution of their judiciary roles

The committee responsible for handling external aid at Chifamba primary unpacked the books and items ready for distribution to the schools and community .Below are pictures of lots of assorted items ready for distribution ;

A day was organised for handover of the books and bicycles .The function was conducted at Chifamba primary where schools were invited to receive their allocations .The occasion was graced by a good number of dignitaries from different government offices and community members, The list included:

1. Deputy minister for energy and power development who is the MP for Mudzi west
2. District Schools Inspector for Mudzi
3. Mudzi district council CEO
4. Chief Nyamukoho and his Headmen
5. School heads
6. Village Heads
7. Councillors
8. Teachers

9. Learners and parents

10. Community Project Zimbabwe Rep

These are pictures of the assembly of invited guests on the hand over day:

The invited guests gave their speeches expressing their gratitude over the donations and urging schools to put the aid to maximum use so that learners benefit .After speeches schools were invited to receive their lots which was presided over by the Deputy minister who was the guest of honour .see pictures of school heads receiving books from the guest of honour

After schools, came the Chief and headmen to receive bicycles. Below are pictures showing the jovial traditional leaders posing before the camera.

The beneficiary schools have started send in their messages of appreciation as written reports and pictures of learners and teachers using the books. Below are some of the pictures and reports:
